

Release Pay Payment Disbursements

WHAT IS RELEASE PAY?

From city, county jails, and detention centers, to transitional work programs and state departments of corrections, Release Pay is the hassle-free way to pay residents and work release participants accurately and on time. With Release Pay you can:

- Transfer resident funds easily to another jail or prison
- Provide an additional ID for work release participants
- Reduce check fraud risk
- Reduce bank account reconciliation time
- Increase efficiency through contactless technology
- Reduce cash handling on site

- Slash disbursement costs
- Curtail unclaimed property and escheatment incidents
- Eliminate lost or stolen checks
- Integrate with commissary and jail management systems
- Integrate with accounting and financial systems

...continued on back

"The Release Pay support team is very efficient in solving any problems we may encounter rapidly and efficiently. The implementation of the program went smoothly and the ongoing support provided by them is commendable."

 L. Tomkins, Supervisor, Inmate Support Unit, Lee County Sheriff's Office

Make Resident and Parolee Disbursements Instantly and Securely

Direct Disbursements

- Make funds available to residents immediately after release or upon transfer
- Avoid the time, hassle, and cost of issuing paper checks and buying postage
- Give residents and work release participants access to payment info on mobile devices
- Accommodate residents who don't have a bank account — they can upgrade their card and make it reloadable
- Empower resident with multiple ways to use their full commissary payment with no fees
- Avoid costly fee structures for residents

Multiple Ways to Receive Funds

- Cardholders can transfer funds multiple ways with zero fees — standard direct deposit, PayPal[®], Venmo[®], paper check, send money to a charitable organization, or redeem for a gift card
- Payees can receive money in minutes via Instant Transfer¹

Types of Payment Disbursements

- Resident release
 - Work release

88%

the percentage of organizations that stated increased efficiency as the reason for converting to electronic payments

> Source: 2018 AFP® Payments Cost Benchmarking Survey

$7.78

the average cost to issue a paper check — implementing digital disbursements can save up to 93% in costs annually

Source: Aberdeen Group

74%

Resident transfer of organizations have experienced check fraud

Source: 2020 AFP[®] Payments Fraud and Control Survey Report

LIKE WHAT YOU SEE?

Learn more about how Release Pay can help your jail, prison, or state department of corrections solve its most complex pay disbursement challenges by scheduling a call with one of our payment technology experts.

Contact one of our payment technology experts:

833.895.3783 | tylertech.com

¹ Instant Transfer to personal debit card. MasterCard[®], Visa[®], Discover[®], American Express[®] supported. Transfer fee applies.

Empowering people who serve the public